RISK TAKER: Harriet Kelsall, who says it was worth it

Glittering jewellery rising star

HARRIET Kelsall Jewellery Design in Green Street, Cambridge, has won another accolade, making it into the Professional Jewellery Hot 100, 2011, in the Retail Stars category.

"The Hot 100 is the who's who of the industry and to be named alongside some of the industry greats is fantastic," Harriet said.

"We took a bit of a risk with the makeover of our Cambridge studio, creating a bespoke design studio on the high street.

"I think I can now safely say it was worth the risk."
