The Professional Jeweller Hot 100, now in its second year, was announced at an exclusive event on September 6 and is a collection of the UK jewellery industry's finest.

Leading industry magazine Professional Jeweller creates a list of the top 100 individuals and businesses as a way of celebrating the entire community of jewellery professionals.

The Cambridge jeweller's inclusion in the Hot 100 comes on top of winning a UK Jewellery Award, being nominated for a Specsavers Everywoman in Retail Award and being named as one of Retail Jeweller's top 50 inspiring independents.

Harriet Kelsall, managing director, said: "The Professional Jeweller Hot 100 is the who's who of the jewellery industry and to be named alongside some of the industry greats is fantastic.

"We've had a great year but we've had to put a lot of work in and to see it all pay off is wonderful.

"We took a bit of a risk with the makeover of our Cambridge studio as creating a bespoke design studio on the high street had never been done before.

"I think I can now safely say that it was worth the risk and I look forward to seeing how much further I can take the concept."
