HERTFORDSHIRE JEWELLERY COMPANY SHORTLISTED FOR NATIONAL JEWELLERY AWARD

Harriet Kelsall Jewellery Design, based in Halls Green near Weston, has been shortlisted in the prestigious UK Jewellery Awards 2011.

The bespoke jeweller is amongst three companies to be shortlisted in the Business Initiative of the Year category as a result of innovation in its newly re-designed studio in the centre of Cambridge.

The studio represents a step forward for the jewellery industry making bespoke jewellery accessible via a High Street retail outlet.

Talking about the company's achievement, Harriet Kelsall, Managing Director of Harriet Kelsall Jewellery Design said: "We are so pleased that our innovative approach in bringing bespoke jewellery to the High Street has been recognised by such a respected body."

The winners will be announced on 14 July at London's Grosvenor House.
