Harriet helps Lisa sparkle for her 40th

LISA Snowdon – TV presenter, radio DJ and model – chose Cambridge jeweller Harriet Kelsall to design and make a pendant to mark her 40th birthday later this month. The design is inspired by an ancient Sanskrit symbol, the Aum, and is made from Fairtrade gold, with a laser-cut garnet, Lisa's birthstone. Lisa met Harriet in July at the UK Jewellery Awards when she presented her with the award for Business Initiative of the Year.
