Harriet Kelsall named RJC's first indie member

Bespoke jeweller Harriet Kelsall has achieved the Responsible Jewellery Council's (RJC) certification, meeting the ethical, human rights, social and environmental standards as established by the RJC's Member Certification System, becoming the first independent jeweller to do so.

Kelsall was audited by Roshini Wickramasinghe from SGS, one of the RJC's third-party auditing firms. Michael Rae, chief executive of the RJC said: "RJC is indeed delighted to congratulate Harriet Kelsall Jewellery Design Ltd on its certification."

The designer says she is proud to be part of the RJC and wants to urge other designers and independent companies to consider becoming members.
