

PRESS RELEASE

It's Christmas party time with free children's jewellery making workshops and festive fun

Mince pies and Winter Pimms, children's jewellery making workshops and goldsmith demos – all this and much more is being lined up for this year's annual Christmas charity fundraiser from Harriet Kelsall Jewellery Design.

The Hertfordshire-based company, the UK's leading bespoke jewellery design company specialising in engagement rings, wedding rings and eternity rings, is holding its festive charity open day on Saturday, November 27th from 10am to 5pm - at its flagship studio in the village of Halls Green.

The event, which is free of charge and open to the public who can simply pop in throughout the day, will feature a full day of popular children's jewellery making workshops. Plus there will also be fiery goldsmith demonstrations – with blow torches and a technique called 'cattle fish casting'.

Christmas decorations and nibbles will ensure families get into the festive mood and people are invited to bring their own pieces of jewellery in to be cleaned at no cost. Guests can also bring in old pieces of much loved jewellery to get expert advice on how they can be re-used.

Harriet Kelsall, Managing Director of Harriet Kelsall Jewellery Design, said: "Christmas is coming early to Hertfordshire, with our exciting event designed to bring a perfect piece of festive cheer families across the county.

"Our children's jewellery making workshops are always hugely popular, and will enable youngsters to get creative and make pieces of jewellery which will make perfect Christmas presents for friends, parents and grandparents.

"Plus, to help you with the Christmas present shopping, we are offering guests ten per cent off our ready to wear dress jewellery collection"

There is no need to book – simply turn up on the day.
