Purple Spring 2008
LABEL

BY HARRIET KELSALL
JEWELLERY DESIGN

The sun's warmth is finally coming through after a long winter, the trees are in bloom, and our spring collection is here. It's all about delicate colour – fresh greens the colour of new growth and cheerful cherry blossom pinks.

We've used lots of fluorite - a type of crystal that comes in some lovely transparent washed shades - with silver and organza, and our usual focus on coloured pearls. These are easy, wearable pieces that can take you right through to summer dresses and beyond.

Purple Label is a local, ethical choice – we make the pieces by hand in small batches in Cambridge and our studio in Herts. Our design philosophy is to combine unusual materials with bright, interesting design, and all the pieces we sell come gift wrapped for easy present giving.

Here's some highlights from the spring collection - see the full collection at www.purple-label.com
